Designed to Inspire

With wide format solid timber flooring throughout the hallway and communal spaces, combined with experienced textures such as, leathers, timber and mohair and marble and brass surfaces, The Bureau feels dependable and self assured from the moment you step through the oversized solid timber front door.

The furniture selected to furnish the space was carefully chosen to provide a comfortable and welcoming space that was both sophisticated, luxurious and practical. The materials of the furniture pieces are key to the design aesthetic and success of the space, authentic raw timbers, instinctive soft leathers, daring mohairs and luxurious velvets make up the uncompromising, incomparable and inspiring workspace that is The Bureau.
